

Safety Quiz

Name:

Defining Terms

Safety is the act of taking the necessary precautions to avoid

_____.

_____.

(fill in the blank- list two of the four examples possible)

An accident can either be a(n) _____ or damage to property which suddenly occurred and was unintentional.

(fill in the blank)

T or F First-aid is the medical care given to a victim of an accident so that we can try to avoid code blues, as well as further attention from a hospital. (circle T for a true statement or F for a false statement)

List two items in the shop that are identified by the color federal safety red.

List two items in the shop that are identified by the color federal safety yellow.

List two items in the shop that are identified by the color federal safety orange.

List two items in the shop that are identified by the color federal safety green.

List one item in the shop that is identified by the color federal safety black/yellow.

What does the following symbol represent?

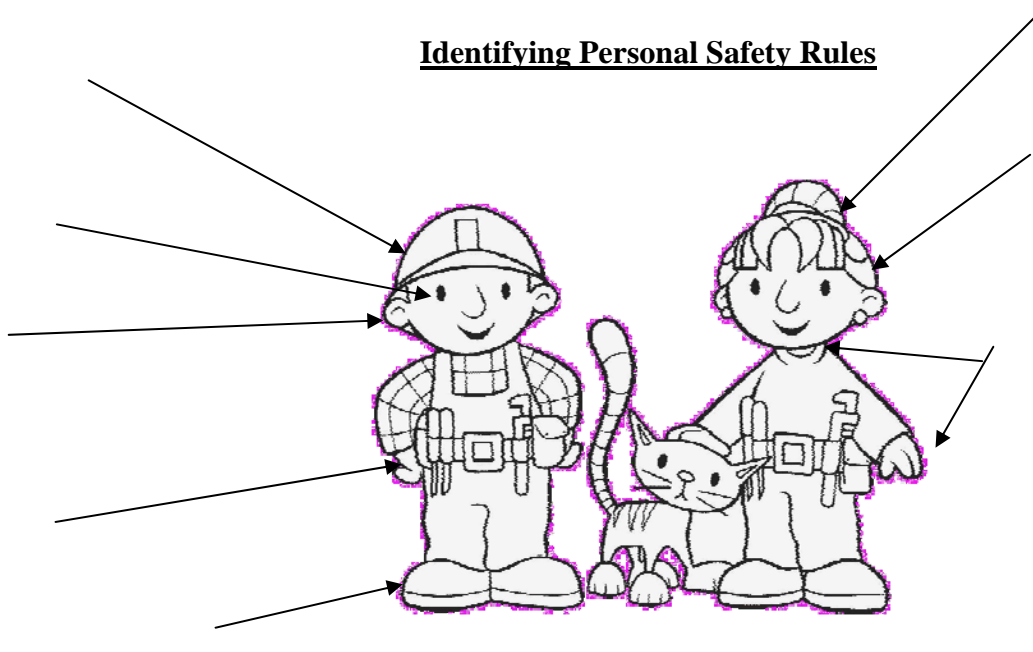

What color is often associated with it?

Which component does not belong in the fire triangle? Heat Oxygen Dryness Fuel
(circle the answer that doesn't belong)

How many fire extinguishers do we have in the lab? _____

Identifying Personal Safety Rules

List 8 personal safety rules. (use the diagram to help you remember them)

True or False (circle T for a true statement, circle F for a false statement)

T or F Keep all hand tools sharp, clean, and in working order. Notify your instructor if something is not working.

T or F Never operate a piece of machinery unless you have seen an instructor talk about the safe handling of a certain piece of equipment.

T or F When students are working in the shop, the only time you can remove your safety glasses is when you are outside the orange stripes on the floor and are not engaged in using a piece of equipment.

T or F Make sure equipment has stopped, power has been turned off and the plug has been disconnected from the wall before making adjustments.

T or F Make sure that you report all accidents, unsafe conditions, and damaged equipment to the instructor by the end of class so that the issues may be addressed.

T or F Make sure that all slippery surfaces, debris and obstructions near work stations, benches, aisles and doorways are taken care of immediately.

T or F Wash your hands regularly because you will have to use them to wipe debris away from your work pieces.

T or F When you need to get debris off of your person, it is best to use compressed air.

T or F Always put tools, materials, and projects away in proper locations when you are finished in the lab.

T or F Oily rags and other combustible materials should never be stored in a closed container because it could blow up.

T or F You should know where to locate brooms, brushes, dust pans, cleaning towels, and garbage in case there is a mess to clean up.

T or F Fire extinguishers at the school should be used by anybody in any location where there is a fire.

Short Description (In a couple of sentences, answer the questions)

On the back of this quiz, tell me what . . .

Code Blue means?

Code Red means?